It is the Australian National Anthem. Featuring… the assembled singers!
Perfect for the junior school band, this arrangement is playable by all levels of musicians - from players with only 6 notes, to those more experienced and able to cope with a wider range.

And, of course, the singers - for whom this work is really composed - provide the melody! (“Solo” melody parts are also included for advancing performers.)

The instant ‘performability’ of this piece for young bands is a winner. Your students will amaze themselves at how soon they can be performing with their peers at assembly!
